

We have some truly unique cricketing and South Australian sporting memorabilia on auction at this year's Hope Cup Gala Launch

This exceptional commemorative piece celebrates the legendary 1948 Australian cricket team, famously known as The Invincibles. Produced as a strictly limited edition of only 48 pieces worldwide, this example is numbered 7/48 and features the original signatures of twelve members of the 1948 squad, including Bradman himself. The photograph captures a defining moment in Australian cricket and serves as a tribute to a team whose achievements remain unmatched.

Personally signed by Sir Donald Bradman, this full-size County "The Australian" cricket bat is a distinguished tribute to Australia's greatest sporting icon.

Created by celebrated Australian artist Pro Hart, Adelaide Oval II: A Century of Cricket commemorates the rich history of one of Australia's most iconic sporting venues. Personally signed by Pro Hart, together with Australian cricket legends Greg Chappell and Ian Chappell, this limited-edition print combines artistic excellence with the legacy of two of Australia's most accomplished cricketers.

Created by acclaimed Australian sporting artist Tim Hall, Mark of the Year 1993 commemorates one of the most spectacular moments in Australian Rules Football. Personally signed by Anthony Modra and the artist, this limited-edition print captures Modra's iconic high-flying mark, a moment that has become part of AFL folklore.

This striking memorabilia display celebrates the career of Shane Warne, one of the most influential and gifted cricketers in the history of the game. Professionally framed and featuring an authentic signature alongside Cricket World Cup imagery, the piece commemorates Warne's remarkable contribution to Australian cricket and his role in some of the nation's greatest sporting achievements.
